

St. John's College
聖 約 翰 學 院

HARRY AOKI AND FRIENDS

“What is Cross-Cultural Music?”

Thursday, October 25th

5:00 PM Fireside Talk and Coffee

8:00PM Performance

St. John's College Fairmont Social Lounge

2111 Lower Mall, UBC

St. John's College is delighted to host Harry Aoki (bass and harmonica) for a talk and performance. Mr. Aoki was born in 1921 and worked in logging camps and sugar beet farms after Japanese Canadians BC Coast during the He has played a bringing different together and will be bringing a and invites members community to bring join in. For more to participate, please Lee (chrism1@interchange.ubc.ca). This event is part of a series at St. John's College this fall on Asian Canadian culture.

were barred from the Second World War. leading role in musical cultures performs widely. He special band to SJC of the University their instruments and information on how contact Prof. Chris

Join us for dinner after the fireside chat ($10.50 for students and $14.00 regular)! Tickets can be purchased in the Administration Office at St. John's College. Please contact Stacy at 822-8781 or sjc.events@ubc.ca to make your dinner reservation and/or for more info.