

St. John's College UBC
聖 約 翰 學 院

Junior Fellow Speaker Series 2008/09

Tuesday, October 7

Elena Cirkovic, Visiting Scholar, UBC Law

Legal Pluralism, Human Rights, and Corporate Responsibility: conflict between mining companies and indigenous peoples in Peru and Canada

Wednesday, November 20

Kirsten Harma, Institute for Resources, Environment & Sustainability

Legal Pluralism, Human Rights, and Corporate Responsibility: conflict between mining companies and indigenous peoples in Peru and Canada

Tuesday, January 20

Bishnu Pandey, Earthquake Engineering, UBC

About Earthquakes – Do they matter to us?

Tuesday, February 17

Yuri Mejia, PhD candidate, Mathematics, UBC

A talk on random stuff. How a probabilist has fun.

Tuesday, March 24

Jaideep Kharub, LL.M. student, UBC Law

Listening to Shared Music Online... Is it legitimate?

Tuesday, March 24

James Hudson, Geography, UBC

What's going on up north?

Tuesday, April 21

Noa Grass, PhD candidate, History, UBC

The Last Communists

Kibbutz – Collective Life in Israel

Tuesday, April 28

Lucila Castro-Patrana, Visiting Scholar at the Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences collaborating with the GATC project.

When good drugs go bad: Tales of the GATC project

Thursday, April 30

Stefan Honisch, PhD candidate, Center for Cross-Faculty Education, UBC

Before presenting the film, Stefan will briefly relate his experiences as a participant in the film, and summarize his research interests in the emerging field of Disability and Music in order to provide some context.

The Making of a Perfect Storm: The Unruly Salon