

St. John's College
聖約翰學院

UBC's International Graduate College

SJC AFFILIATED SCHOLARSHIPS
THESIS COMPLETION AND TRAVEL AWARDS
APPLICATION DEADLINE: APRIL 3, 2018

Generous donors have provided funds for the following scholarships to be awarded to residents of St. John's College, who will be known as Johannean Scholars.

George Shen Fellowship
Reginald and Annie Van Fellowship
Sir Quo-Wei Lee Fellowship
Itoko Muraoka Fellowship
Charles CC and Sophia Wong Memorial Fellowship
Li Pai Lin Memorial Fellowship
Holia Chow Memorial Scholarship

The total funding available for these awards for the 2018-2019 academic year is approximately $100,000.

Thesis Completion Scholarships

The intention of the Thesis Completion Scholarships is to enable accomplished graduate students who are outstanding community members of St. John's College to complete excellent theses.

Research Travel Scholarships

The intention of the Travel Scholarships is to assist accomplished graduate students who are outstanding community members of St. John's College to undertake travel for a purpose directly related to their course of study. The average award in previous years has been $2,500.

Eligibility – Thesis Completion Scholarship

Applicants must:

- be enrolled in a graduate degree program and engaged in the final stages of the completion of a graduate thesis
- display a high level of academic achievement and demonstrable contributions to the College
- have completed one full year of residential membership at St. John's College (application can be made during the first year of membership)
- expect to complete their degree during the academic year for which the award is made

- maintain residence in the College during the term for which the award is made
- only one Thesis Completion Scholarship will be granted to a student during a course of study at UBC [one per degree]
- priority will be given to applicants who have not previously received a St. John's College Thesis Completion Scholarship

Eligibility – Travel Scholarships

Recipients must:

- be enrolled in a graduate degree program
- display a high level of academic achievement and demonstrable contributions to the College
- have completed one academic term of residency at St. John's College (application can be made during the first year of membership)
- be undertaking travel for a purpose directly related to their course of study during the 2017-2018 or 2018-2019 academic year
- after conclusion of the travel, recipients will deliver a presentation in the Resident Fellow Speaker Series, or, if not feasible, will submit a report on the travel for which the scholarship was used
- priority will be given to applicants who have not previously received a St. John's College Travel Scholarship

Application Instructions:

Residents may apply for either or both scholarship(s). All documents, including letters of support from the supervisor, are due by April 3, 2018; incomplete applications will not be considered.

Applicants must submit:

1. A letter of application (maximum 750 words) detailing:
 - which award(s) is being applied for
 - what living at the College has meant to the applicant
 - the contributions they have made to the College
 - how the award will assist them during and/or in the completion of their course of study
2. A budget, if applying for a travel scholarship
3. A letter of support from their supervisor, speaking to each of the eligibility criteria for the specific award(s) being applied for. Please refer to Instructions for Referees available on our website (<http://stjohns.ubc.ca/home/apply/awards-scholarships/>)

All documentation should be forwarded to the SJC Membership Coordinator, at sjc.membership@ubc.ca, by the deadline date.

Adjudication Committee

The St. John's College Principal

The St. John's College Associate Principal(s)

The St. John's College Assistant Principal(s)

A St. John's College Faculty Fellow

Two Resident Fellows of the SJC Academic Committee who are not under consideration for an award