Thesis Completion and Research Travel Scholarships

Residents may apply for either or both scholarship(s). The eligibility criteria for these scholarships is described below.

Eligibility – Thesis Completion Scholarship

Applicants must:

- be enrolled in a graduate degree program and engaged in the final stages of the completion of a graduate thesis
- display a high level of academic achievement and demonstrable contributions to the College
- Application can be made during the first year of membership; however, priority will be given to candidates who have completed at least one year of residency at St. John's College.
- expect to complete their degree during the academic year for which the award is made
- maintain residence in the college during the term for which the award is made
- only one Thesis Completion Scholarship will be granted to a student during a course of study at UBC [one per degree].
- present their research if awarded the scholarship. The presentations will be conducted in the month of May (2019) and will be 3 min long with 2 min of additional time for questions.
- commit to provide a statement (Between 200-300 words) indicating how this fellowship helped you in your graduate studies (Please use specific examples of how it supported your graduate research). This statement should be provided by Dec. 15th, 2019.
